Working With Lord Taylor

Liz received a "Distinction" for her recent studies. She graduated from Kings College, London with an MA in Twentieth Century English Literature. The ceremony was held at the Royal Festival Hall, London. She has also been nominated for Parliamentary Researcher of the Year.

Milenia, Liz and Edwin with Dr. James Wayman

Dr. Wayman raised awareness of Biometrics in Parliament. He answered many topical questions associated with the National Identity Scheme.

Milenia also attended an event to increase the profile of the ifs School of Finance. A keen supporter is Lib Dem MP David Laws. The school is working to promote financial literacy amongst young people.

In the Spotlight!

We like to keep in touch with past interns. This month we are featuring Laura Juhasz. After leaving WLF, Laura returned to Hungary where she is now working for a Budapest law firm. Laura has an international brief and believes her current success is founded upon her experiences at WLF.

Lord Taylor of Warwick

Lord Taylor chaired the United Kingdom Youth Parliament Debate at the British Museum. Over 200 attended from all over Britain to debate topical issues of particular concern to young people. The event was a great success and was filmed for German and BBC television. Lord Taylor's blog about this is on the WLF website.
